THE 2026 IOWA ART IN SCIENCE CONTEST

The goal of The Iowa Art in Science Contest is to recognize the combination of outstanding scientific discovery and artistic appeal inherent to microscopy research. Images from any mode of microscopy can be used, and any form of colorization, manipulation and compositing is completely acceptable. Be creative, have fun!

Image Submissions Due November 6, 2026

Winning scientist-artists will receive prizes and 12 will have their art featured in the 2027 CMRF Calendar!
